The Program
Students completing this program will have demonstrated:

- the ability to read and explicate written English precisely
- analysis of literature from several critical perspectives
- meaningful use of literary, linguistic, theoretical, and rhetorical terminology
- an awareness of structures of power in language, literature, and culture
- stimulating and effective writing in a variety of genres according to the accepted conventions of English studies
- knowledge of literary movements and writers from a range of historical periods and cultural frameworks
- the ability to understand and perform rhetorical strategies to inform, persuade, and argue.

The English major at HSU encompasses perspectives derived from literary theory, contextual knowledge about literature, the analysis of language, the close reading of texts, and written expression. Students take a balance of lecture and small-group instruction. This program is excellent preparation for a wide range of careers, all requiring reasoning ability and skill in the use of language. Students in English do well in many occupations, including magazine or book editor, teacher, critic, library assistant, and writer in many areas such as technology, business, government, non-profit organizations, and other organizations for social change.

Preparation
High school students should take four years of English, including composition and literature. Study of a language other than English is recommended.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MAJOR

Minor in Ethnic American Literatures

Advisor
Christina Accamando, Ph.D.
Founders Hall 219
707-826-3479

The Program

Drawing on classes from ethnic studies, Native American studies, and English, this interdisciplinary minor provides the opportunity to study the diverse literatures of multi-ethnic American writers.

Students gain an understanding of the comparative histories and cultures of ethnic groups in the US through ES 105, required of all minors. Minors take another 12 units in ethnic American literature and culture, including ENGL/ES 336, American Ethnic Literature. Courses might concentrate on the literary traditions of a particular group (Native American, African American, Asian American, or Chicano literatures) or examine multi-ethnic US literatures in a comparative way. Various special topics courses also may apply, depending on the topic and subject to advisor approval.

This minor can be particularly useful for those planning careers in teaching, social work, business, law, journalism, and community development.

Course Requirements

15 units in approved courses in ethnic studies, Native American studies, and English

ENGL ES 105 (3) Introduction to US Ethnic Studies
ES 336/ENGL 336 (4) American Ethnic Literature

Eight additional approved units in ethnic American literature and culture. Options include:

ENGL 330 (4) American Literature [depending on topic; consult advisor]
ENGL 465 (4) Multicultural Issues in Literature [depending on topic; consult advisor]
ES 314 (3) Chicano Culture & Society in America
ES 336/ENGL 336 (4) American Ethnic Literature [topics vary; may be repeated]

NAS 301 (3) Native American Literature [topics vary; may be repeated]

NAS 302 (3) Oral Literature & Oral Tradition

Consult with the advisor for approval of special topics courses not on this list.

Minor in Linguistics

Advisor
Kathleen Doty, Ph.D.
Founders Hall, Room 212
707-826-5917

The Program

Faculty are drawn from several departments for an interdisciplinary, integrated program of study. Participants analyze language in all its aspects.

Linguistics students find they have a background for careers requiring both written and spoken communication skills. Potential careers: linguist, translator, interpreter, advertising specialist, writer, intelligence specialist, speech/language pathologist, speech writer, materials developer, editor, and ESL teacher. This minor also provides a background for students wanting to do graduate work in linguistics, modern languages, or a social science.

Course Requirements

Complete a minimum of 19 units in approved courses.

The Applied English Studies MA Program
The MA in English offers a broad curriculum meant to prepare students for a range of pursuits. The program fosters the development of critical reading, writing, teaching, research and other scholarly skills through focused study of literary and cultural texts, pedagogical theory, curriculum development, composition and rhetoric, digital humanities, linguistics, and ESL/EFL. Students gain an advanced understanding of current disciplinary knowledge, including how texts circulate among audiences and how language shapes the world. We offer a variety of opportunities for hands-on learning in the form of teaching assistantships, tutoring positions, and internships in teaching, editing, library cataloging and archiving, digital humanities, tutoring, and ESL/EFL. With an emphasis on professional development, the program expands opportunities for K-12 teachers and prepares students for Ph.D. programs and jobs in college teaching as well as careers in publishing, editing, professional writing, librarianship, digital scholarship, and teaching English abroad. Students have considerable latitude in designing master’s projects that match their interests and the expertise of graduate faculty.

Students completing this program will demonstrate:

- the ability to produce professional-quality, research-based analytical writing in various genres and/or media
- the use of a variety of interpretive strategies for analyzing multiple kinds of texts, including digital and new media production
- engagement with theory and an ability to locate a text in its cultural and historical contexts
- skill in applying key theories and practices in the teaching of reading and writing for diverse audiences, including multilingual speakers
- understanding of cultural competency and social justice lenses
- the ability to define an area of inquiry and its relation to the field at large in a project or thesis

Candidate Admission
In addition to the general CSU requirements for graduate admissions, candidates for the English MA program need to include the following documents with their application:

- three letters of recommendation
- academic writing sample

For complete information on current admission requirements, please consult the English department’s website at humboldt.edu/english/

Employment, Internships & Funding

Graduate Teaching Associates. Select MA students have the opportunity to work as Graduate Teaching Associates in the English department under the leadership of the Writing Program Director. Graduate Teaching Associates teach first-year writing: ENGL 104 Accelerated Composition and Rhetoric. If selected as a Graduate Teaching Associate, you will be required to attend a 2.5-day pre-semester teaching workshop during the week prior to fall semester and enroll in ENGL 581 for 3 units during your first semester teaching. Contingent on the availability of funds and student eligibility (as determined by financial aid awards), select Graduate Teaching Associates may receive a tuition waiver during one or more semester[s] they are teaching. For more information, please contact Professor Lisa Tremain, Writing Program Director, at ldt142@humboldt.edu.

Writing Consultants in the English Department. Graduate students are encouraged to work as writing consultants in our Writing in the Disciplines Seminar (AHSS 200). Qualified applicants may become paid Writing Fellows. Successfully completing one semester of ENGL 450 Tutoring Developing Writers is a prerequisite for all paid fellow positions. For more information about becoming a Writing Fellow, please contact Prof. Lisa Tremain, Writing Program Director, at ldt142@humboldt.edu.

Writing Studio Consultants in the Learning Center. Writing Studio consultants help other students organize and revise their writing assignments for courses in any subject area. Consultants meet with individual students in 30-minute blocks of time, either by appointment or on a drop-in basis. Consultants work with students to identify areas in their writing that would benefit from revision, and assist the students’ efforts to strengthen their overall papers, rather than proofreading or making changes for students. Regular paid meetings are mandatory. Applicants must have completed ENGL 450 Tutoring Developing Writers or equivalent prior to being hired. Positions typically open before the start of each semester. For more information, please contact Jessica Citti at 707-826-5188 or jessica.citti@humboldt.edu.

Teaching Internships. Graduate students may intern in literature, composition, business and professional writing, or English as a second language classes, where they work closely with faculty teaching the courses. Interns are exposed to a wide range of teaching activities and experiences, and receive mentoring from the faculty of record. Certain coursework may be necessary before enrolling in an internship. Consult the catalog and the graduate coordinator before enrolling in a graduate internship. While faculty members typically invite students for these internships. Students are also encouraged to seek out faculty and initiate a conversation about the possibility of working as their teaching interns.

Library Internships. Graduate students may intern in HSU Library’s Humboldt Room and University Archives. Library Scholar interns gain hands-on experience with archival research and preservation, intellectual property and copyright, scholarly editing and publishing, public history, and museum studies. They work with manuscripts, rare books, and assorted special collections, developing skills including research, publicity, accession processing, digitization, and preparation of exhibits and digital projects. Library Scholar Interns work as a team to complete a variety of projects and receive mentoring from the faculty of record.

Western Regional Graduate Program. HSU is a member of the Western Regional Graduate Program (WRGP). WRGP is a program that allows students from fifteen western states to attend HSU and pay California Resident Tuition: Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming. The English Department participates in this program. For more information, please consult the WRGP website at http://wiche.edu/wrgp.

Federal Work Study Graduate Research Assistantships. Qualified MA students who are eligible for work-study funding may be matched with faculty or staff members whose research or creative projects require a research assistant. Awards of up to $5,000 per academic year (up to 15 hours of work per week) are typically available contingent upon federal funding. Students must be enrolled in 6 units or more of course work to be eligible. While faculty members typically nominate students for these positions, students are also encouraged to seek out faculty and have a conversation about the possibility of working as their research assistants.
