Minor in Ethnic American Literatures
Advisor
Christina Accomando, Ph.D.
Founders Hall 219
707-826-3479

The Program
Drawing on classes from ethnic studies, Native American studies, and English, this interdisciplinary minor provides the opportunity to study the diverse literatures of multi-ethnic American writers.

Students gain an understanding of the comparative histories and cultures of ethnic groups in the US through ES 105, required of all minors. Minors may take another 12 units in ethnic American literature and culture, including ENGL/ES 336, American Ethnic Literature. Courses might concentrate on the literary traditions of a particular group (Native American, African American, Asian American, or Chicano literatures) or examine multi-ethnic US literatures in a comparative way. Various special topics courses may also apply, depending on the topic and subject to advisor approval.

This minor can be particularly useful for those planning careers in teaching, social work, business, law, journalism, and community development.

The MA Program

The MA in English offers a broad curriculum meant to prepare students for a range of pursuits. The program fosters the development of critical reading, writing, teaching, research, and other scholarly skills through focused study of literary and cultural texts, pedagogical theory, curriculum development, composition and rhetoric, digital humanities, linguistics, and ESL/EFL. Students gain an advanced understanding of current disciplinary knowledge, including how texts circulate among audiences and how language shapes the world. We offer a variety of opportunities for hands-on learning in the form of teaching assistantships, tutoring positions, and internships in teaching, editing, library curating and archiving, digital humanities, tutoring, and ESL/EFL. With an emphasis on professional development, the program expands opportunities for K-12 teachers and prepares students for Ph.D. programs and jobs in college teaching as well as careers in publishing, editing, professional writing, librarianship, digital scholarship, and teaching English abroad. Students have considerable latitude in designing master’s projects that match their interests and the expertise of graduate faculty.

Students completing this program will demonstrate:

- skill in applying key theories and practices in the teaching of reading and writing for diverse audiences, including multilingual speakers
- understanding of cultural competency and social justice lenses
- the ability to define an area of inquiry and its relation to the field at large in a project or thesis

Program Admission Requirements

In addition to the general CSU requirements for graduate admissions, candidates for the English MA program need to include the following documents with their application:

- three letters of recommendation
- academic writing sample

For complete information on current admission requirements, please consult the English department’s website at english.humboldt.edu.
